Description:

About the Author Thomas Kinkade emphasized simple pleasures and inspirational messages through his art. Thom believed that both the ability and the inspiration to create his paintings had been given to him as a gift. His goal as an artist was to touch people of all faiths and to bring peace and joy into their lives through the images he created.

Katherine Spencer was a fiction editor before turning to a full-time career as a writer. The author of more than thirty books, she also writes The Black Sheep Knitting Mysteries under her real name,

Anne Canadeo. She lives with her husband, daughter in a small village on the Long Island Sound. Outside of her office, she's active in many community projects—aiding the homeless, preparing food for those in need and a literacy outreach that promotes reading and provides free books.
