Description:

Review As vivid as any film. She transported me to the surreal land of Katrina's Gulf and rocked my world with both heartbreak and awe for the heroism of rescuers.

--Geralyn Pezanoski, Producer and Director of the award-winning Katrina documentary: MINE.

A compelling, must-read book for everyone who has ever loved -- and been loved -- by an animal.
---Allen and Linda Anderson, authors of Rescued: Saving Animals from Disaster and cofounders of the Angel Animals Network

A master's work. A rollercoaster from heartbreak to absolute joy. A must read for anyone who gives a damn about our furry friends.
---- Cary Black, author of A Freight Train Screamin'

The book you keep reading through the tears and laughter. Outstanding! Remarkable. A tour de force for the animals, rescuers, and survivors.
---- Dr. Ann West, Ph.D, Author of Truth From The Source ~ Awakening from Life's Illusions and Limitations.'

It's the rescue world heightened. It brings to light all of what is good, and bad, about this world. For everyone who loves animals, and who loves life, and wants to make it better. --Sylva Kelegian, Actress/Rescuer, board member: The Forgotten Dog
